MICHAEL SUPER

Mr. Super, our supervising principal, in his office where he is always busy striving to solve our never-ending problems and assisting us in every way to help make Northwestern High School the best ever.

Principal

William A. Ketterer

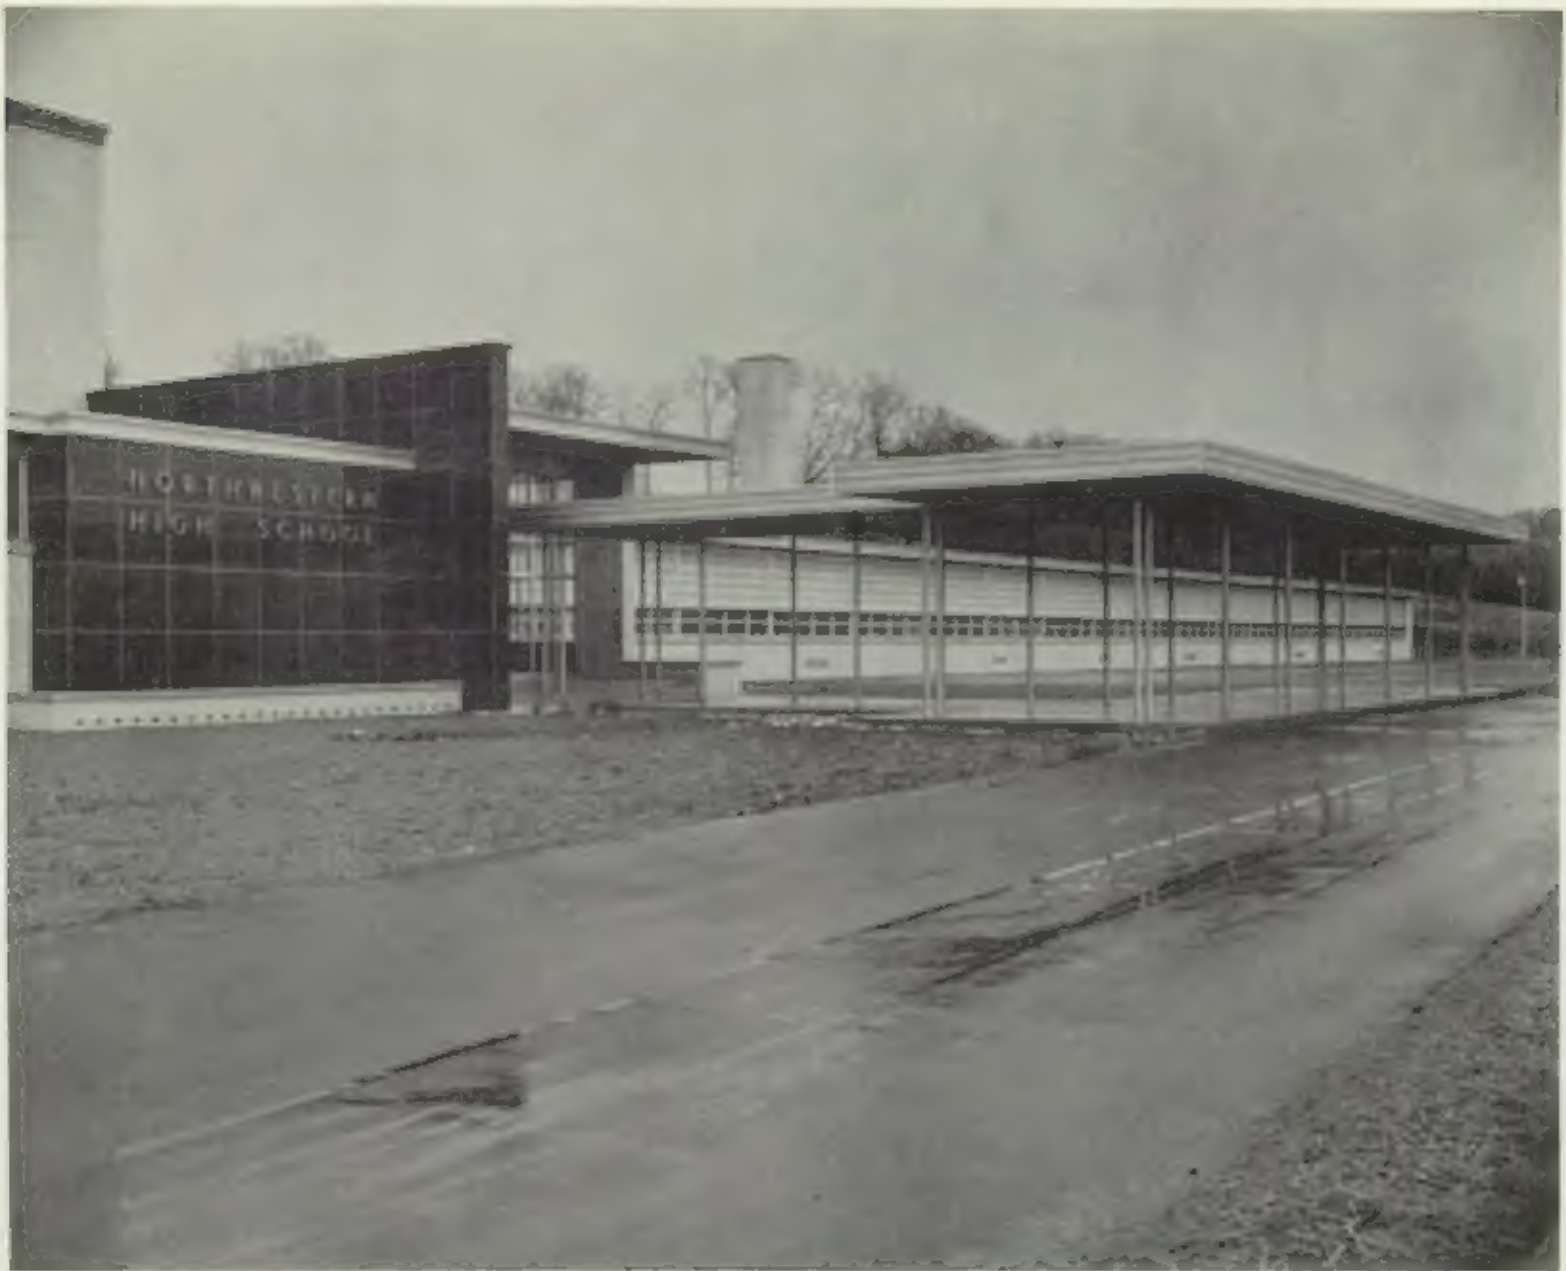

Mr. Ketterer, in his office, where he meets the everyday problems which beset any high school. He is always there to assist with a schedule, have a conference with a teacher, or handle a difficult discipline problem.

Mrs. Carlisle and Mrs. Horn are always busy in the office, too. Courteously answering questions, making change, taking telephone calls, selling lunch tickets, and generally helping everyone, in addition to their own secretarial duties.

Stands a school that's small
Loyalty prevails forever
And it stands there to fall.

Snow Queen and Attendants

One of the highlights of our Senior year at Northwestern was our Silver Bells, Semi-formal, held during the Christmas holidays. The high point of the evening was the crowning of the Snow Queen--Carol Veon. Music was furnished by the Collegians.

Another event worthy of remembrance was the presentation of the Senior Class play early in March. It was a delightful comedy-mystery--'The Case of the Missing Heirs,' very capably directed by Miss Norma Harlan, our Speech teacher.

Panther Staff

Perhaps one of the most demanding, and certainly one of the most rewarding, jobs was done by the 1959 Panther Staff. Starting early and working late, this staff solicited ads, sold subscriptions, typed, galleyed, and generally worked their fingers to the bone in order to present the best in a yearbook to our student body. Many thanks to co-editors--Nancy Farrell and Kay Gibson, and all who gave a good many of their evenings to the PANTHER. Thanks also to Mr. Shadle, Panther sponsor.
